About the piece:

Text: Mateo 6:9-13	English translation:
Padre nuestro,	Our father,
que estás en el cielo.	who art in heaven.
Santificado sea tu nombre.	Hallowed be thy name.
Venga tu reino.	Thy kingdom come.
Hágase tu voluntad en la tierra como en el cielo.	Thy will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.
Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día.	Give us this day our daily bread.
Perdona nuestras ofensas,	Forgive us our trespasses,
como también nosotros perdonamos a los que nos ofenden.	as we forgive those who have trespassed against us.
No nos dejes caer en tentación y líbranos del mal.	Lead us not into temptation and deliver us from evil.
Amén.	Amen.

About the text:

The Lord's Prayer is the prayer that Jesus taught his disciples, when they asked him how they should pray. It has two origins from the Bible: Matthew 6:9–13 and Luke 11:1–4. This setting includes the former. Most Christians know the prayer by heart in their own language, and it is used today by every Christian tradition, though there are sometimes minor variations in the wording.

About the composer:

Corbin Montenegro (b. 2004) is a composer, performer, and scholar currently based in St. George, Kansas. He is currently pursuing a Bachelor of Music Education from Kansas State University, where he is a member of the school's flagship choral ensemble, Concert Choir.
